ANNOUNCEMENTS

Join us for snack time and Sunday school after Worship service. The Adult Sunday school class will meet in the Church office for the Fall quarter.

TODAY: At 11:45 am, after Sunday school is our monthly fellowship meal. The first Sunday from October through May, we share a pot-luck meal together. If able, please bring a dish to share and your own place setting.

We will celebrate communion today for World Communion rather than our usual second Sunday communion. November will resume our typical schedule, taking communion Nov 12.

Focus Groups on Racism: During the next few months, you are invited to participate in a focus group to gauge our congregation's desire/interest to do more intentional work around racism, including within our own structures and organization. These will be hosted in a variety of settings and with facilitated questions for group discussion and input. Watch for coming details on dates and locations. Questions? Talk to Rebecca Weber or Pastor Lorie.

Oct 8th will be a Music Sunday previewing some of the songs and worship materials for the Mennonite Church's new hymnal being released in 2020. Opportunities for feedback and content are still available online: MennoMedia.org/Resonate

If you are able to be a substitute Sunday School teacher, please let Linda Esh or Sarah Rody know.

Any guys out there interested in free voice lessons? The barbershop harmony group that I (Jeff Knightly) sing with, will be hosting 6 free voice lessons, Monday evenings from October 23 - November 27th. When you are done you will have the option of joining us in our annual holiday on December 2nd. See me or follow this link for more information.

On October 16, the Mennonite Heritage Center is sponsoring a unique one-day tour to New York City to visit the Tenement Museum and learn the stories of immigrants on Manhattan's Lower East Side in the mid-to-late nineteenth century. There will also be a 2-hour guided "Foods of the Lower East Side" walking tour of the neighborhood. For information and to register, see www.mhep.org or call 215-256-3020. Registration due by September 29.

Kingdom Builders Network (KBN) Giving: KBN, the Anabaptist network of churches in Philadelphia, is gathering money to send a contribution to MDS for their work in post-hurricane relief and a small contribution to Iglesia Evangelica Menonita de Oracion y Adoracion, the new congregation meeting at Oxford Circle Mennonite. If you would like to contribute, please send your contributions to Fred Kauffman (KBN Treasurer) at 4631 Pine St, E305 / Phila. PA 19143. Mark your contribution for either MDS, Iglesia Evangelica, or both.

Church Council sent a letter to MC USA's Executive Board regarding the inclusion of the LGBTQ community and other marginalized groups in denominational committees and appointments. If you didn't receive the letter via WPMF listserv, there are copies on the mailboxes along with some background on the timing of the letter.

Interfaith Study with Imam Malik, Thu evenings Oct 19 - Nov 30 (no study Nov 23), 7 pm @ Calvary Center. Calvary UMC, Kol Tzedek Synagogue, Muslim Community Masjid, and WPMF are invited to join together in studying Bruce Lawrence's The Qur'an: A Biography, led by Imam Malik. The discussion will look at the historicity of interpreting a sacred text; how context shapes and allows interpretation. Space is limited so register with Kari, Calvary building administrator: office@allmeansall.org Preference will be given for equal number of participants from each congregation.

Understanding Anabaptist Approaches to Scripture: What's Different and Why? October 25 to December 12. This on-line short course is taught by Loren Johns, Ph.D., professor of New Testament at Anabaptist Mennonite Biblical Seminary (AMBS). It is an interactive 6-week course that looks at: What, exactly, is Anabaptism? Where did it come from? Why did the early Anabaptists' method of reading of Scripture challenge, and often frighten, their contemporaries? And why does it still matter today? Cost: $200 before Oct. 4; $250 after. Noncredit. CEUs available.

Update your contact info! Our annual church directory will be printed in October. Please email Dorianna if to update any info or if you would like to be included in the directory at wpmf@wpmf.org.
