

Visiting Sunday, August 6th, 2017 Worship Services

On August 6th, there will NOT be a worship service at WPMF, rather the Worship Committee encourages you to visit another congregation. Enjoy the gift of worshipping alongside of others outside of our circle and be open to God's grace and challenge. Take a step of action and experience what the Spirit is doing in another congregation in our neighborhood or networks. We encourage you to do this in groups or individually and to reflect on the questions below, being ready to share some of your experience in our August 13th worship service.

Reflection questions:

- How did you see God at work in this congregation? What type of atmosphere did you sense? Were there particular things that made you feel welcomed?
- How was the Holy Spirit moving in you? What inspired you? Challenged you? Changed your outlook?
- What did you learn from this experience of worshipping together?

On Aug. 6th there will be an opportunity to visit New Person Ministries for a time of worship. New Person Ministries in Reading, PA offers housing and community support for returning citizens. This will be a time to meet and fellowship with staff and guests at New Person while dreaming about WPMF's future involvement with Redemption Housing. Executive Director Jordan Kauffman, who serves as an advisory member for Redemption Housing and has preached at WPMF in the past, welcomes 8-10 people for a small, simple service followed by a meal. If you are interested in attending please contact Robert Kuehl. For more info about New Person Ministries visit newpersonministries.org
